

MANILA AND CAVITE FALL BEFORE JAPANESE BRITISH EMPIRE SOLDIERS CAPTURE BARDIA

TIRE AND TUBE LIMITS FIXED FOR JANUARY

County Allotted 64 Tires and 53 Tubes for Present Month

QUOTAS ALSO SET FOR TRUCKS, BUSES

Sales to Be Limited to 25 Per Cent of Total During Each Week

Approval of the sales of only 64 tires and 53 tubes for passenger cars, motorcycle and light trucks in Columbiana for the month of January, was made today by Leon Henderson, price administrator.
He also placed an O. K. on the sale of 179 truck and bus tires and 150 tubes.

Mahoning county's January quotas was placed at 148 tires and 124 tubes and 323 truck and bus tires and 270 tubes.

The Stark county quota was set at 178 tires and 149 tubes and 417 truck and bus tires and 349 tubes.

War Comes Home

In the state of Ohio, rationing boards may issue purchase certificates during January for only 5,033
tires and 4,228 tubes for passenger cars, motorcycles and light trucks, and only 11,925 tires and 9,969 tubes
for heavy trucks and buses.

War in the Far East, cutting off America from vital crude rubber supply sources in Malaya and the Dutch East Indies, was thrust home with a jar today as Henderson established January tire quotas for more than 3,000 counties in the nation.

Henderson said that local rationing boards would be instructed to limit sales in the first seven days to 25 per cent of the county's monthly quota, and 25 per cent in each succeeding seven-day period.

"In order to secure a new tire or tube," said the Office of Price Administration, "under the quotas the purchaser must fill out an application which must be certified to by an inspector as to the condition of the tire or tube being replaced.

Hopes for Rise in Limits
This application must then be taken to a local rationing board which, if the purchaser can show that he falls within the eligible classifications, can issue a certificate for purchase. This must then be taken to a tire dealer, where the tire or tube may be purchased."

Henderson said that the "hoped" quotas for the warmer spring and summer months could be enlarged, but that much would depend on "development in military requirements."

He said the average vehicle had 9,000 miles left on its tires, sufficient for an average driving year, and that all persons should initiate

Lack of Support In Air Hampering Efforts of Allies

LONDON, Jan. 2.—A British spokesman declared today that British and American fleets cannot be expected to operate effectively in the south Pacific until they can obtain adequate air support.

He asserted the Japanese might even be able to neutralize the use of Singapore as a naval base by bombing from air bases in Malaya.

"However," he said, "We must keep the long run of the Pacific situation, remembering that in the long run the Allies can outbalance the Japs."
But the situation needs careful handling at the present moment."

NEW CAR SALES BANNED BY U.S.

Automobile Industry To Be Mobilized For War Production

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Sale of new passenger cars and trucks was prohibited throughout the United States today under government orders mobilizing the entire American automobile industry for war production only.

To put the country's army on wheels and give it the guns, planes and tanks to fight with,
factories which in peacetime made four times as many automobiles as the rest of the world put together will be required to halt all manufacture of new cars and light trucks for civilian use "within a few weeks," it was announced.

All New Car Sales Banned

The passenger cars and the light and heavy trucks now in stock with dealers can be bought only by government, lend-lease and the most essential civilian users. Pending establishment of a rationing system to handle distribution of these automobiles, the purchase, sale and delivery of all new cars and trucks is prohibited.

The rationing set-up is expected to be in operation by Jan. 15. It will be supervised by Price Administrator Leon Henderson, whose office yesterday imposed drastic quotas reducing by about 90 per cent the number of new tires and tubes available for sale to civilians.

The sale ban had been expected by the automobile industry, but came earlier than had been anticipated. Representatives of the industry are to meet with supply, priorities and allocations board officials in Washington Monday to discuss the war production.

Industry to Readjust Itself

Alvan Macauley, president of the Automobile Manufacturers' association said in Detroit that the few weeks of grace until manufacture of civilian cars must end entirely would help the industry readjust production from civilian to defense items "to our advantage and the advantage of labor."

R. J. Thomas, international president of the United Automobile Workers-CIO, predicted that when production actually is halted there will be 150,000 more men thrown out of work in addition to the 150,000 already unemployed.

The union has contended for months that the industry was not producing war materials in sufficient quantities. Items now being turned out by automobile manufacturers include tanks, airplane motors, guns, shells and a score of other weapons in addition to the army trucks and blitz buggies for which little change-over was needed.

RAF AND TANKS AID IN GRAND OFFENSE

More Than 1,000 German and Italian Soldiers Are Taken Prisoner

CAIRO, Jan. 2.—British and South African troops have captured Bardia and released 1,000 British prisoners who were held there by the Libyan port's Axis garrison, it was announced today.

The announcement came in a special GHQ communique, which said the British were released when Bardia's citadel was taken.

Capture of the port, near the Libyan-Egyptian frontier and some 300 miles east of the main British spearhead now engaging the bulk of Axis African forces at Agadabia, came after an intensive attack lasting several days in which the South Africans were supported by British tanks and artillery and the RAF.

In addition to releasing the British prisoners, the capture of Bardia also resulted in the seizure of more than 1,000 German and Italian troops.

"The number of enemy prisoners taken is not yet known," said the special communique, "but our casualties are reported to be light."

A British military spokesman said that the bulk of Gen. Erwin Rommel's retreating armies were still fighting in the Agadabia zone, 90 miles south of Bengasi, but that because of bad weather conditions there had been little chance in the situation.

Heavy rains were reported hampering mechanized operations on both sides.

A German communique asserted British troops had been thrown back near Agadabia and had suffered heavy losses under Nazi bombing assaults.

Premier Mussolini's high command reporting violent fighting around Agadabia, said Axis planes attacking the British had "pushed them in a northwest direction."

Postoffice Income Shows Big Increase

Postal receipts in Salem during 1941 showed an increase of $5,987.22.
Postmaster A. E. Beardmore disclosed today, reflecting improved business conditions generally.

Total receipts for the year were $107,720.43, against the 1940 total of $101,733.28.

Only three months last year had receipts below the corresponding reports of the previous year. Receipts last month were $17,223 above December, 1940.

COUNTY TRAILING IN SEAL SALE DRIVE

Although returns from Salem and the rest of Perry township have been appreciable, persons who have not yet made their contribution to the Columbiana county Christmas Seal program to combat tuberculosis, are urged to do so at once.

Perry township's quota, was set at 10 per cent above last year's figure, $1,982. This season, local contributions have amounted to $1,584.

To date, $8,000 of the county's $10,000 goal has been raised.
Archie Dalton, Seal sale chairman and secretary of the public health league, pointed out that the nation's health is essential to the war effort. The men in the service, the men in the factory and farm,
the very homes of Americans must be protected against pestilence and disease. Deadliest of all the enemies of man, are explained, and one which strikes without warning, is tuberculosis. Proceeds of the health seals help fight the disease.

British Capture Nazi Soldiers In Norwegian Raid

British Commandos, above, lead captured German soldiers to the invasion barges that were used in the British sortie against the German base on Vaagso island, Norway. In the daring raid, the British forces destroyed 16,000 tons of German shipping, wrecked Nazi supplies and captured prisoners. Later, London announced that another raid had been carried out against the Norwegian island of Lofoten.

REDS DRIVING ON MOZHAISK

Smash at Nazi Stronghold, Last Great Threat
To Moscow

(By Associated Press)

Russia's Red armies were reported smashing today at German-held Mozhaisk, the last of the great threats to Moscow, after Adolf Hitler rushed to the front in an attempt to halt the retreat of his battered invasion forces.

Mozhaisk is 57 miles west of Moscow.

Stockholm dispatches said the fuehrer's new headquarters were established near Smolensk, 150 miles behind the fighting zone.

New Soviet triumphs were reported by the Red army command, which announced the recapture of Staritsa, an important rail and Volga river city 125 miles northwest of Moscow, and Kaluga, 110 miles southwest of the capital.

The fall of Staritsa, marking a 45-mile sweep southwest from Kal-inin, placed the Russians only 30 miles north of the Volga river port of Rzhev, a key rail town.

Red army vanguards were reported only a few miles from Mozhaisk, while Soviet artillery shelled German defenders of the city.

Possibly aimed at heading off heavy German air attacks against the long British supply and communications lines in Libya, the royal air force has been attacking German air bases on Greece and Greek islands near Turkey as well as a newly-disclosed submarine base.

These attacks have carried as far north as the Athens area, where the port of Piraeus has become a British target as it was a German target in the days before Greece's fall.

New Mayor Orders Old Glory Up

Mayor R. R. Johnson's first official act after taking office yesterday was to instruct Police Chief R. N. Stoffer to have the Stars and Stripes hoisted to the top of the city hall flag pole.

"Old Glory should be there every day," the mayor said.
Heretofore, the American flag has been displayed only on special occasions.

Among messages of congratuson upon taking office as mayor was one from W. J. Matthews, Cleveland mechanical engineer and former Salem resident who was Johnson's first safety director when Johnson was in office some 20 odd years ago.

The new mayor had only one court case to dispose of Thurs-

his wife with assault and battery. The husband was fined $5 and costs.

MANILA'S FALL NOT DISASTER

Analyst Says Set-Back Is Bad, But Not Essentially Fatal

BY DEWITT MACKENZIE

Occupation of the open city of Manila and the neighboring naval base of Cavite by the Japanese would appear from incomplete advices to mean that our battle-line south of the capital gave way under weight of numerically superior enemy forces, compelling General MacArthur to make another withdrawal and consolidate his troops to the north where the Japs also are attacking heavily.

Possession of these two strategic places will strengthen the invader's position by permitting them to pour reinforcements from the south through Manila and thus perhaps compel MacArthur to defend his position from the rear as well as the north.

This grim set-back doesn't necessarily mean the loss of the Philippines, and Washington reports that American-Filipino resistance continues. However, it certainly emphasizes the gravity of the situation, and affords little ground for optimism.

MacArthur seems to be doing a grand job of leadership. To have withdrawn and reformed his lines not only once but twice, while standing off heavy attack, is a high mark of skill. That sort of operation is one of the most difficult a commander can encounter.

He is a great soldier, but he can't pull reinforcements out of a hat.
Lacking quick aid, or an allied move which would create a diversion somewhere else to ease the Japanese pressure on the island of Luzon, the chances of our holding the Philippines are small, although the evil day might be stood for a time.

If this Japanese success presages the fall of the Philippines it is quite possible that they will remain in enemy hands until such time as the Allies have defeated the Japs on the latter's own home grounds.

Nippon Troops Seize Capital and Naval Base

Both Places, However, Evacuated of Military and Naval Supplies and Equipment Before Enemy's Vanguard Arrives

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—Manila and the nearby naval base of Cavite fell to the Japanese today.

Both places, the war and navy departments said, had been evacuated of military and naval supplies and equipment before advance units of the enemy arrived.

"The loss of Manila, while serious, has not lessened the resistance to the Japanese attacks," the war department said.

At Manila all military installations were removed or destroyed when the capital of the Philippines was declared an open city, and all troops, both Filipino and United States, were removed, the war department said.

The navy said all equipment, records and stores not destroyed by Japanese bombers had been removed from Cavite, but that the naval hospital personnel remained to care for the wounded.

The advanced units of the Japanese entered Manila at 3
p. m. (1 a. m. E.S.T.) the war department said.

The navy had more than $25,000-worth of property and supplies on hand in the Philippines in June this year, most of it centered about Cavite.

This total does not consider how much material had been sent there from June 30 to the opening of hostilities Dec. 7. Neither did it include the value of planes and ships and other fighting equipment.

NEW CITY ADMINISTRATION

Salem starts the year 1942 off with a new city administration. With a sigh of relief, it welcomes this change—any change would have been welcomed. But as it hangs its head in shame for having permitted the kind of an administration it suffered during the last two years, it turns hopeful eyes toward the next two years. There is much reason for hope, for in Mayor R. R. Johnson and his two aides the city will find honest, conscientious leaders at the helm. They have the city's interests, not their own selfish interests, at heart.

For four years just prior to the first world war, Mayor Johnson gave a good account of himself as the city's chief executive. He knows how to keep his feet on the ground, he understands municipal problems, he's a hard worker and he seeks cooperation of all who are in a position to help him give the city the kind of an administration he desires and the kind the people of Salem have sought in vain in the last two years. He started out well by making two good appointments. Two years ago Frank K. Wilson completed a four-year term as service director "in the black." His selection for the same job was a good one. As safety director in charge of the police and fire departments, Curt Phillips can be expected to give a good account of himself. He's honest and he has the courage of his convictions.

All three officials face difficulties because of the mess in which the Phillips administration left things. It was by far the worst administration this city has had in 40 years. Now that Phillips and Rafferty have departed, the new administration can look forward to a rebuilding program—one based on honesty of purpose, a high regard for the protection of city finances, a constructive program for the city's benefit.

TORTURING THE JAP DIPLOMATS

In a hazy way it's understandable why members of the Japanese embassy should be tormented off to Hot Springs and surrounded with considerably more than the comforts of home pending arrangements for shipping them back to Japan. It's something about the Golden Rule.

But the fact is that the United States embassy staff in Tokyo when the Japs began their blitzkrieg has been reported safe; it left Japan immediately. There is no question of reciprocity. The United States is free to torture the Jap diplomats with no fear of reprisal. The Golden Rule could be suspended without ill effects.

If anyone can think of a neater torture than to make Messrs. Nomura, Kurusu & Co. discourse earnestly 18 hours a day on peace while their countrymen are waging war, the suggestion will be received and passed along to the state department, which will pay no attention to it. These things might be done better if they were a little further from formality and a little closer to reality.

SOMETHING TO BE SAID

Discussion of the quibble ever who has the better right to control the islands of St. Pierre and Miquelon—Vichy France or Free France—embodies one point of view that Americans are going to have to analyze carefully before adoption. It is the point of view that fire must be fought with fire; that because the Free French are on the anti-Axis side and Vichy France is on the fence, therefore the Free French can do no wrong.

A lot of fire-with-fire fighting is going to be needed before the Axis bloc is shattered. It isn't a job that can be done by playing cricket or sticking closely to the American code of sportsmanship. But there is something to be said for the other side, too. One of the things the anti-Axis bloc is fighting against is the wanton use of aggression as a weapon in international relations. Seizure of territory cannot be condoned in one instance, condemned in another. Otherwise, there would be a sacrifice of principle to expediency, which is precisely what the anti-Axis bloc has pledged its resources to stop.

WATCHING THE RAMPARTS

Many citizens will wonder why their congress, having reached the end of the first year of a two-year term, will go through the motion of adjourning sine die (meaning "without appointing a day for reassembling.") Thereby hangs a little tale.

Although congress does not have to wind up its year, it always does. And the reason it does, or the chief reason, is so members will be entitled to their mileage allowance. An act of 1886 provides that members shall get this allowance "to be estimated by the nearest route usually traveled in going to and returning from each regular session." Hence, the sine die adjournment so there can be another session. Actually, if congress wanted to, it could meet continuously so there would be only one session. At a time like the present, that would be entirely practical. The few congressmen remaining in Washington have no intention of leaving the city between the end of the first session and the beginning of the second—but they won't forego their mileage allowance for a trip home that they never made. It's one of the great American customs, usually referred to as the mileage racket.

IT WAS A GREAT YEAR FOR THEM

Decent interment for 1941 is not complete without one last word about the public men who climbed out on limbs. Their names are too numerous to record. It was a great year for them. Probably more than the customary number managed to caught up in trees. Among the more conspicuous members of the limb set just be mentioned two. Adolf Hitler on about Oct. 1 told his boys they'd be through fighting Russia before winter set in. Frank Knox, in a series of speeches before Dec. 7, managed to give the impression that the United States navy could scarcely wait for a chance to blow the Japanese out of the Pacific.

Mr. Knox has been eating his humble pie like a good sport, but Hitler celebrated the end of 1941 by telling his boys they'd certainly be through fighting Russia before the end of 1942.

THE STARS SAY:

For Saturday, January 3

AN INTERESTING and eventful day, judging by the very intriguing aspects of leading planets. There is likely to be a sudden and peculiar development, with strange, irregular and unpredictable situations, probably arising from unfathomable and surprising sources. With all this tone of mystery and surprise, there is a groundwork of stability and security, although this may involve definite change of place, plans and contacts. Elders seem to figure as well as strangers. The emotions, ideals and aspirations are involved, as well as stern mentality.

Those whose birthday it is may be prepared for a year of intriguing and baffling experiences with an air of the vague and intangible, the strange and peculiar. But there will also be sound and solid factors for success and security, with elders as well as strange elements furthering the objectives. Hard work with sound returns may be supplemented by intuitive, inspirational or even psychic stimuli. There will be change, happiness and surprises.

A child born on this day will have many practical virtues as well as unusual creative talents, inspired by ideals, intuitions and vivid imagination. It will be successful and happy and have strange adventures.

Of course, there's a slight chance that rationing automobile tires will have something, at least, to do with slowing down the speeders who are always in a hurry to go no place in particular, and who are responsible for most of the wrecks in our streets and on our public highways.

France gave this country the Statue of Liberty. She is now 50 and doesn't look a day older in her pictures. The way things in France are now she could be thought of as a refugee.

NEW YEAR DIAGNOSIS OF THE WORLD

"Happy New Year!" Is Physician's Wish

By LOGAN CLENDENING, M. D.

Happy New Year! Yes, indeed, let's wish each other a happy new year," was my old friend Dr. Adrian Gibbs' greeting to me this morning.

"I wish you a happy new year, but we are not going to get a happy new year in this world just by wishing.

"I may not be news to you, but we are facing a crisis.

"You know, a doctor learns a good deal about crises. I have been in on a lot of human crises and I always found that if the crisis was going to be solved, somebody had to do some cold, calculating thinking. It doesn't do any good to get worked up and turn on a lot of hope! The sister in the corner who is sitting with clenched hands with the tears running down her cheeks, is not helping at all.

Hate Doesn't Help

"And it doesn't do any good to hate. Father and brother out in the kitchen who are cursing out the germs that the sick man has, or telling what they think of the truck driver who knocked him down on the icy sidewalk are no good either. That's all over. Hate won't do it.

"Nor will a false sense of activity! The member of the household who runs around and gets the hot water bags, the consultant who always wants to give a hypodermic, the aunt's suggestion that we call Dr. Soandso from Poughkeepsie who once had a case like this—they are just making a diversion, not doing anything constructive.

"No! Somebody, and it's usually the family doctor, has to sit down quietly and figure out just what is amiss with nature and how it can be adjusted to allow a return to normalcy. Somebody has to think.

Genius Needed

"I had a director of civilian defense in the Department of Hygiene ask me to make suggestions to improve the health of the nation in this crisis. I said, 'Sir! George Washington had false teeth; Napoleon had ulcer of the stomach; Julius Caesar had epilepsy; Ulysses S. Grant was an alcoholic; Charles XII had tuberculosis; Horatio Nelson had one eye, and Robert E. Lee was deaf in one ear. What this country needs is a genius—never mind whether he can pass a life insurance examination.

"What that genius must do is quite a job. He must realize that all the peoples of the modern world are now bound inseparably in an economic union, and that union must be equitably managed, and no one nation—which means England as well as Germany—can be allowed to dominate the management.

"I think, my silver-haired friend—"

But I have only five hundred words at my command in this column and I cannot tell you all Dr. Gibbs thinks.

Progress Is Made By Salem Students In Higher Circles

A recent survey of the progress which has been made by Salem High school graduates, now in college, has just been made by school authorities. The report indicates that the local lads and lassies have given a good account of themselves.

Perhaps the most difficult time for college students is the first semester of their freshman year. In September, 1940, a total of 30 graduates of Salem High school entered the freshman class of 14 different colleges and universities. Local High school officials have compared the grades earned by these 30 students during their senior year in high school with the grades received during the first semester at the various colleges and universities.

The average grades received for the first semester of the freshman year at college were one letter lower than those received as seniors in High school, that is, a B student in High school received C for the first semester in college. Likewise, the A student in High school averaged B in college.

When one takes into consideration the many new adjustments college freshmen are called upon to make, it is realized that the Salem graduates have been doing good work.

Probably the best single subject for comparison is grades given in English. It so happens that 28 of the 30 students took English both as High school seniors and as college freshmen.

As high school seniors these students received six A's, sixteen B's, and six C's. As college freshmen these same students received one A, eight B's, thirteen C's, five D's, and one F. That is indeed a good showing, Salem High authorities explain, for college students usually receive better grades after they become accustomed to college routine.

For many years Salem High school has been rated annually by two accrediting agencies. One is the state department of education, and the other is the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. Both organizations have given Salem High school first grade rating. While suggestions for improvements in facilities have been made, the local school has not even been warned by either rating agency during the last ten years.

ALIENS CALLED ON TO GIVE UP RADIOS

Ohio Police Also Ask for Cameras; Alien Travel To Be Restricted

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Jan. 2.—Police in 44 northern Ohio counties are making preparations today to receive cameras, short wave radios and weapons from enemy aliens, and to restrict alien travel.
Regulations were forwarded to police by Francis B. Kavanaugh, U. S. attorney pro tem, in conformity with orders extended to the nation by Attorney General Francis Biddle.
Kavanaugh said 11 p. m. Monday is the deadline for turning in the named articles. German, Japanese and Italian nationals are subject to the regulations.

Enemy aliens living in Columbiana county were notified today through the office of Sheriff George Hayes to turn into the police headquarters nearest them any firearms, cameras or short-wave equipped radios.
F. B. Kavanaugh of the Cleveland office of the United States attorney general, advised the sheriff that those persons affected by the wartime order must have their equipment turned over to the police by 11 p. m. next Monday.

Enemy aliens must surrender to police all radio transmitters, receiving sets covering the bands from 540 to 1,750 kilocycles, and all combination long and short wave receiving sets unless the short wave parts have been put out of commission. Ignorance of a set's frequency range will not be accepted as an alibi, said Kavanaugh.

Covers Portable Equipment
The cameras under ban include still and motion picture equipment which is portable. Studio or fixed cameras may be retained but must be reported to police in writing.
Firearms, weapons, munitions and explosives, including hunting guns cannot be kept by enemy aliens.
Police will hold the articles in a safe place until further regulations are issued as to their disposition.
Enemy aliens may move about as usual in their home communities, commuting where necessary, and may enter government buildings on business. All other travel must be with the permission of the district attorney, after the alien has submitted in writing one week in advance, complete information as to his name, nationality, alien registration number, purpose of the trip, dates of return and departure, details of stops, routes to be followed and the carrier to be used. Violation of the regulations will make offenders liable to internment.

short time as power line repairs were made.
Ohio Edison Co. crews answered trouble calls throughout the district. The Ohio Bell Telephone Co.'s trouble calls also were general. The wind toppled poles in scattered areas.

The mercury was as high as 51 degrees here yesterday afternoon at the start of the new year but midnight it had tumbled to 45 degrees. The drop continued to 26 this morning amid snow flurries and stood at 22 degrees at noon today.

(By Associated Press)
The Midwest dug out of a traffic-blocking snowfall today, shivering meantime in temperatures below or near zero.

Generally the snow which swept over the mid-continent New Year's day had ended. Movement of the storm was a wartime, military secret guarded by the weather bureau.

Road crews in Iowa, one of the states hardest hit, attacked snow which reached 18 inches on the level and much deeper in wind-whipped drifts. Sioux City had the lowest temperature in that state, 14 below zero. Des Moines reported 7 below.

Minnesota main roads were open but dangerous in the southern part. It was generally below zero in Minnesota. Sub-zero weather chilled the Dakotas. Nebraska and parts of Kansas and Missouri, South Dakota reported a range from -14 at Aberdeen to -22 at Spearfish.

PROPOSE LARGER RETIREMENT FUND

COLUMBUS, Jan. 2.—A proposal that the state teacher retirement law be amended to provide 4 per cent deductions on salaries up to $3,000 a year, in place of the present $2,000 limit comes up for consideration today at the opening general session of the Ohio Education association's two-day convention.

The recommendation, approved by the association's educational council, also asks that investment of the retirement system's funds in the bonds of other states and their political subdivisions be permitted.

Approximately 1,200 public school teachers and administrators were expected to attend the sessions. U. E. Diener, Fremont school superintendent, and Z. M. Walter, Wyoming, O., superintendent, are among candidates to succeed H. C. Roberson of Lima as association president.

TWO HUNTERS DIE, PUTTING TOTAL AT 20

COLUMBUS, Jan. 2.—Two gunshot fatalities on the last day of the hunting season brought to 20 the number killed in Ohio fields since the annual barrage began Nov. 15.

ARMY ORDER FAILS TO HALT MARRIAGE

INDIANAPOLIS—An order cutting short the holiday leave of Staff Sgt. James McGuire of Rantoul Field, Ill., threatened to prevent his marriage to the girl back home—Mary Elizabeth Brewer of Sharon, W. Va.

To the rescue came Mrs. Dorothy F. Buschmann of the Army Navy and Marine Service club and Helen Hartinger, colonel of the service men's cadette regiment.

Mrs. Buschmann pulled a deputy county clerk away from a party to make out marriage license and got a doctor to make the required blood tests on the couple.

Miss Hartinger induced her father the Rev. William C. Hartinger, to perform the ceremony and Sergeant and Mrs. McGuire, Indianapolis' first newlyweds of 1942, left for his post and a happy New Year.

Stresses Defenses

CLEVELAND, Jan. 2.—Civilian defense preparations will have first priority in the city administration for 1942, says Mayor Frank J. Lausche. OHIO'S TREASURY
SET FOR BIG PULL

Surplus of $11,500,000 Is Estimated As New Year Begins

COLUMBUS, Jan. 2.—Ohio entered the new year and the new year period with probably the strongest financial position of any state in the union.

It may be a few days before the treasury's actual status can be determined, but State Finance Director H. D. Defenbacher stuck to his former estimate of an $11,500,000 surplus.

This would permit payment of all outstanding obligations as of Dec. 31 and the $6,000,000 school deficit after allowance for $3,000,000 already appropriated on the deficit for 1942 and to be paid from this year's revenues.

The $6,000,000 cannot be paid from the treasury surplus without legislative action, however. Gov. John W. Bricker is expected to recommend the payment if he calls a special session of the legislature this year; otherwise it will have to wait until the next regular session of the legislature this year; otherwise it will have to wait until the next regular session in 1943.

Several school districts claim the state owes them additional money for payment of maximum subsidiary allowances, but Defenbacher said the claims probably would amount to less than $500,000.

The claims are being considered by the special school survey commission authorized by the last legislature and headed by Rep. Walter Tarr of Cincinnati to study and make recommendations on the entire school system.

Indications are that the treasury surplus will about equal increased state tax revenues for 1941, approximately $12,000,000 over the 1940 total.

Returns to Religion

MARIETTA, Jan. 2.—Dr. Harry K. Eversull is returning to religious work after five years as president of Marietta college.

Shortly after Dr. Eversull disclosed that he had submitted his resignation, effective Feb. 1, to a member of the Marietta college board of trustees, the Rev. Robert S. Lambert, president of the Cincinnati Council of Churches, announced that the former Congregationalist pastor would become associate secretary of the council.

After 12 years as pastor at the Walnut Hills Congregational church in Cincinnati, Dr. Eversull succeeded Dr. Edward S. Parsons as president of Marietta college in the spring of 1937 and within a few months launched a five-year campaign to raise a $500,000 endowment fund.

Woman Dies In Fire

COLUMBUS, Jan. 2.—One woman died in a New Year's day residence fire, but four others owed their lives today to a 16-year-old youth who aroused them by throwing a rock through a window.

Jocelyn Calif, 48, a roomer, was overcome by smoke and perished as her escape down a stairway was cut off by flames.

PRINTER IS GIVEN U. S. WAR BUDGET

Calls for Greatest Spending Effort In Annals Of World

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2. — The first United States war budget, calling for the greatest spending effort in world annals, went to the printers today.

President Roosevelt and Budget Director Harold D. Smith, after working through the New Year's holiday, sent all but a few pages of the history-making document to be set up in type. Those final pages were practically done, too, but were held for possible last minute changes.

Contents Secret
Contents of the budget were still secret and guarded to prevent premature disclosure before presentation to congress some day next week.

But the President already has hinted publicly at war costs of $50,000,000,000 for the next fiscal year (the 12 months beginning July 1, 1942), indicating a total federal budget of roughly $55,000,000,000 after allowing for non-military activities.

That will approximately double the spending rate of the current fiscal year, already the most expensive in United States history, and dwarf the $18,522,000,000 spent in the most costly year of the world war.

It also will surpass the estimated $30,000,000,000 a year expenditures for war of Germany and the $21,000,000,000 a year of the British empire.

Seeks New Taxes
Stacked against revenues, the proposed spending plans call for more than $3 of expenditures for every $1 of taxes. The treasury has estimated that existing taxes will raise about $16,000,000,000 in the coming fiscal year, but is seeking huge new taxes which may alter the fiscal outlook later.

The budget may also mean a $100,000,000 national debt in the next fiscal year. The treasury's obligations now are $57,750,000,000, and are expected to come close to the existing $65,000,000,000 statutory debt limit in the next six months.

Leetonian Uninjured
Fred Ales of R. D. 1, Leetonia, was reported uninjured when his car and another automobile driven by an Alliance motorist collided on the Garfield road one mile east of Garfield, at 1:15 a. m. Thursday, state highway patrolmen said.

POULTRYMEN ACT TO BOOST EGG OUTPUT

Columbiana County Poultry producers will have the opportunity to hear C. M. Ferguson, poultry specialist from Ohio State university, at a meeting to be held in the Memorial building in Salem at 2 p. m. Tuesday, Jan. 6.

Ferguson will speak on the subject, "Poultry Management in Relation to the Defense Program". Eggs are one of the basic foods in diets needed to keep children and adults in good health. Poultrymen are increasing egg production to aid in the defense program and this brings new problems. Ferguson will discuss these problems with the producers on Tuesday afternoon.

a conservation program at once, driving more slowly, eliminating unnecessary driving, hauling the neighbors and practicing other tire-saving routine.

County and state quotas were established on a basis of car registrations, but 2 per cent of the national total and 8 per cent of each state quota was withheld in advance to iron out possible inequalities in the allotment.

An order prohibiting producers and dealers from equipping new light motor trucks with spare or extra tires was issued by the OPM.

Donald M. Nelson, director of priorities for OPM, defined a light truck as one of less than 1½ tons. The order became effective today.

SHORT SESSION OF GRAND JURY LISTED

LISBON, Jan. 2.—A short session of the January grand jury is anticipated, with only 14 cases listed for investigation, to date, according to Prosecutor Frank W. Springer, who urged all mayors and justices to file transcripts immediately.

Cases listed for investigation when the grand jury convenes next Monday, include auto thefts, breaking and enterings, and one case charging manslaughter against Henry Gable, Alliance truck driver in connection with the death of James W. Thompson of Cleveland, in a traffic accident just south of West Point last Oct. 10.

MALAYA ZONE WILL GET AID

"Considerable Help Is On Way", Says British Far East Commander

SINGAPORE, Jan. 2. — General Sir Henry R. Pownall, new commander in chief of British forces in the Far East, declared today "considerable help is on the way" to Malaya where Japanese forces struck closer to Singapore in fresh landings on the west coast below the big tin town of Ipoh.

His statement, published in the Malay newspaper Kuala Lumpur did not disclose the nature of the help, but said "it is intended to fight for every inch of ground down the Malay peninsula."

Fighting already had closed in to approximately 190 miles from Singapore on the east coast, in the Kuantan region, and 275 miles on the west coast in Lower Perak province.

It was in Lower Perak that the new Japanese forces were landed and engaged by British defense forces, a communique said.

The war report asserted that "there has been renewed activity in Perak both on the main front and with enemy parties who landed in Lower Perak. Fighting continues."

Twice during last night Japanese bombers brought the war again to Singapore island. A communique said that in the first attack damage was slight and there were no casualties. Results of the second attack were not disclosed immediately.

Shortly after dawn Singapore had its first daylight alert in recent days. British fighter planes roared up over the city but no Japanese planes appeared.

Call Coal Hearing

WASHINGTON, Jan. 2.—The bituminous coal division today called a hearing for January 28 in Cincinnati to review minimum prices for the shipment of coal by river, rail and otherwise to retail dealers and other purchasers in the Cincinnati area. The hearing order said the division had received complaints on the minimum prices now in effect there.

LISBON, Jan. 2.—Donald Falls of R. D. 1, Leetonia, was uninjured when his truck upset and caught fire on the Lisbon-Leetonia road, just north of here, Wednesday night.

Theatre Attractions

The old old story of youngsters who want to be Broadway stars is brought out again, given to Mickey Rooney, Judy Garland and an excellent supporting cast, and the hit musical comedy, "Babes on Broadway", turns up. The picture is seen at the State tonight through Saturday.

Singing and dancing and romancing together again, for the seventh time in films, the two young stars who topped the list of film players in box office popularity and money makers last year, are seen with Ray McDonald, a young dancer who makes his film debut in the picture; Virginia Weidler, young veteran of many films in which she has won a reputation as an expert picture-stealer; Fay Bainter, academy award winner; Richard Quine, and Donald Meek.

The two youngsters, failing to attract the attention of Broadway as they think they should, produce their own musical and make the "Great White Way" sit up and take notice.

At the Grand tonight and Saturday are Tim Holt in "The Bandit Trail" and "Zis Boom Rah" with Peter Lind Hayes, Grace Hayes and Mary Healy.

ATTACKS REPORTED ON AMERICAN SHIPS

BATAVIA, N. E. I., Jan. 2.—The Dutch East Indies high command reported today that "one or two warships belonging to the American fighting forces which are cooperating with the Netherlands navy" had been attacked by Japanese planes in the northern part of the Indies archipelago without suffering "serious damage."

The Indies command said the U. S. warships were aiding "in the defense of these regions."

An official communique said that in the same area Japanese aircraft also attacked two U. S. planes. The American planes were not damaged.

In their "continued attempts to terrorize the population" the high command added, three Japanese planes bombed the east coast of Sumatra yesterday.

Aneta, N. E. I. news agency, which released the communique, said the Japanese attack took place at Laboan Bilik, a small settlement "entirely devoid of all military objectives."

The communique said other Japanese planes bombed and machine-gunned Amboang, on the island of Celebes, where their targets appeared to be copra warehouses, and Sobo in New Guinea, where one adult and two children were reported killed and two adults and 12 children injured, four of them seriously.

Mysteriously Stabbed

ELYRIA, Jan. 2.—The unexplained stab death of Roland Hist, 41, during a walk in a woods puzzled authorities today as they dismissed robbery as a possible motive.

Edward and Carl Hist found their truck driver brother's body near his home, his shirt buttoned to cover a wound over the heart. His pockets contained $45. Police Lieut. L. E. Sweet said the wound apparently was not self-inflicted and that no weapon was found.

Republicans Take Over

CINCINNATI, Jan. 2.—Republicans dominated the Cincinnati city government today for the first time since 1923, ending a long reign of the coalition charters.

Reorganizing council yesterday under the November election mandate, the Republican majority gave Mayor James Garfield Stewart a third term and elected Willis D. Gradison as vice mayor. Former Vice Mayor Edward N. Waldvogel was a leader of the charter group.

Quakers Meet Canton Lehman Saturday; Bid For Sixth In Row

POLAR BEARS HAVE VETERAN FIVE; USE FAST BREAK SYSTEM

Quaker Mentor to Depend On Five Responsible for Win Streak

Salem High's fighting Quakers, riding on the crest of a five-game winning streak, will journey to Canton Lehman tomorrow night to meet a veteran Polar Bear aggregation.

Coach Jim Snyder, a member of the Ohio University squad last year, took over the coaching reins at Lehman and found the material both experienced and plentiful. Left from last year's great squad which won the city championship were four lettermen, Ralph Sponseller, Jack Smith, Bill Kloss, and Jack Lohamer. To round out this veteran quintet, Snyder has chosen Chet Fair, a sensation with last season's reserve squad, to fill the shoes left vacant by the graduation of Captain Bill Doll.

Snyder has been teaching the Polar Bears a new system and until the third game of the campaign they were unable to catch on. In the Akron Hower game, however, the Lehmanites showed signs of picking up and soundly trounced Akron's weakest five by an overwhelming margin.

Features Fast Break
His system features a fast break and he has drilled the squad hard in his effort to make it a smooth working combination. During the past week, he put the team through numerous workouts and scrimmaged against the Mount Union college courtmen. The Bears gave a good account of themselves in that secret session.

Jack Lohamer, a letterman who put Canton on the scholastic grid map during the past season, will be unable to face the Quakers due to an illness which has plagued him since before the holidays. To counteract this misfortune, without weakening the team, Coach Snyder has been forced to shift his lineup somewhat. He has sent Kloss to a forward to team up with the sharpshooting Fair and moved Jack Finn into Kloss' place at the center post. Sponseller and Jim Uehlinger will start the game at the guard positions, rounding out the Cantonites' probable starting five.

Jack Smith, who has started Lehman's first three games, will alternate with Sponseller. The Polar Bears record is not too impressive so far, although they have won two out of three battles. In their opener, they found trouble getting the attack to function and just managed to nose out a weak Ashland Harbor outfit. The first defeat of the year was suffered at the hands of Cuyahoga Falls by a 2-19 count. A tough, one defense kept the Bears bottled up throughout the whole. In the game against Akron Hower, Snyder's system began to pay dividends and the Canton squad crushed Hower, 46-14.

Face Tall Opposition
The Quakers' opposition for tomorrow night is a range crew averaging about 5'11 1/2" in height and the locals will probably find it hard to control the backboards as they have been doing in the last few tilts.

The locals have not been idle all week either. Coach Herb Brown has sent them through several practice games to prepare them for their battle with one of the district's best quintets. On Monday the eagles went through morning and afternoon workouts to ready them for the Alumni tilt last Tuesday night. They eked out a 28-27 overtime win but the following day found them engaging in additional sessions.

Brown is busily ironing out the rough spots and strengthening the weak points in the Quaker machine. The game with the ex-grads proved that the home team was not perfect. Double workouts each day have not hurt the locals in the least and tomorrow's game should find them in the pink of condition.

Brown has announced that he will once more start the five which has come through with five wins in six attempts. The boys are Ray McCaffie, Salvatore Guappone, Sam Pridon, Bob Scullion, and Johnny Volio. This combination hopes to add another scalp to its belt tomorrow.

TOLEDO HANGS UP EIGHTH STRAIGHT

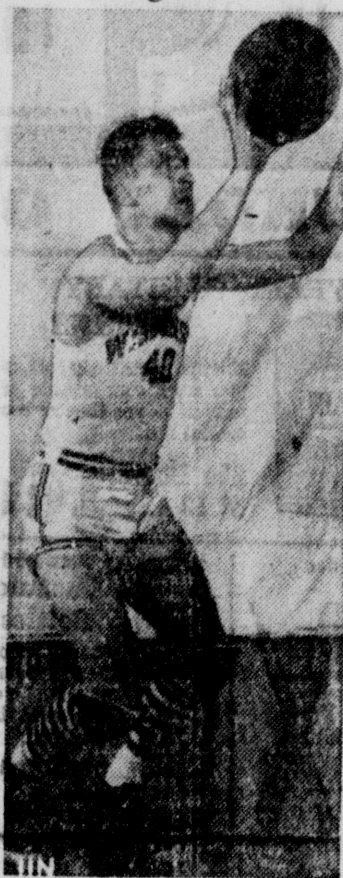

TOLEDO, Jan. 2.—The scalps of the Dartmouth Indians hung from the belts of the Toledo University basketball Rockets today, completing a sweep of three of the east's leading squads.

With Center Bob Gerber tallying 29 points, the Rockets beat Dartmouth, 59 to 46, last night. Earlier in the holiday season, Toledo trimmed Yale and Cornell.

The Dartmouth victory stretched undefeated Toledo's victory string to eight.

EAST LIVERPOOL, Jan. 2.—Construction of a $660,000 horse racing plant to be known as Waterford Downs, on a 160-acre Ohio river site at nearby Arroyo, W. Va., was assisted today when the final new tract necessary was acquired by A. J. Boyle of Charlestown, W. Va.

Badger Star

Johnny Kotz

One of the high-scoring cagers in the country, Johnny Kotz, captain of the University of Wisconsin team, is leading the Badgers to another fine season. Wisconsin, defending champions in the Western conference, begins its 1942 schedule Jan. 5. Kotz is a forward.

SECOND LUISETTI IS UNCOVERED BY STANFORD MENTOR

Jim Pollard, 6' 4 1/2" Giant, Brings Indians New Offensive Style

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK—In more normal times, basketball coaches on the west coast spend their time hunting for Luissetti.

And from reports the new one-man bucket brigade had been found. He's Jim Pollard, 6-foot 4 1/2 inch sophomore forward at Stanford University—the same school for which Luissetti once did his point-making.

Pollard, 19 years old and weighing 185 pounds, recently passed a special examination and will be eligible for the Pacific Coast Conference season when it opens next month.

The Oakland youngster's advent probably will bring an entire new style of offense for the Indians. Last year they hustled to the championship of the southern half of the coast circuit on speed and cleverness.

Lineup To Average 6' 4"
This season, with Pollard and other members of the 1940 freshman squad that won 16 of 18 games eligible, it is believed Coach Everett Dean will switch to power. Stanford's starting lineup will average 6 feet 4 inches.

Dean sees Southern California and the University of California quintets since California Saturday night held Ohio State scoreless the first 10 minutes while getting 20 points itself.

The Big Ten opens its conference schedule with full quota of five games Saturday night. Minnesota, Northwestern and defending champions from Wisconsin still unbeaten.

DePaul and Loyola, Midwestern Independents, each beaten but once in eight starts.

Wisconsin meets Dartmouth Wednesday while Michigan tangles with Marquette.

Faculty Manager Fred Cape has announced that the Salem-Lehman battle will be broadcast over station WHBC from Canton. Game time is scheduled for 8:45. The preliminary will begin at 7:30 with the unbeaten Salem reserves tussling with a not-too-weak Canton second string quintet.

BLUE DEVILS BOW TO OREGON STATE IN "ROSES" UPSET

Fordham, Georgia, Alabama, Tulsa Win Other Major Contests

DURHAM, N. C., Jan. 2.—They laughed when Coach Lon Stiner of Oregon State sat down hard on the football dopesters because they had "underestimated my team." But when Lon's boys started to play, folks, the laughter changed to amazement.

Lon proved convincingly yesterday in the Rose Bowl game here that his Beavers, who entered the contest on the short end of 3 to 1 odds, were the most underrated individuals since David slung his sling. The youthful coach maneuvered his team to a 20 to 16 triumph over a Duke club which had gone through a nine-game season without a defeat, a tie, or a close call.

Thus ended what probably will go into the record books as one of the most unusual games in the Rose Bowl saga. Duke made 15 first downs to 14 for the visitors. But the Beavers were out front most of the way, and Duke never forged into the lead.

The first payoff play was a 15-yard romp by Left-handed Don Durdan, the Mr. Dependable of the Westerners' squad. Duke knotted the count in the second stanza, on a four-yard reverse by the brilliant Steve Lach.

Statists Score Again
Then came the third quarter and one of the wildest chapters in the history of Dixie football. Oregon State went into the lead when Bob Dethman shot a beautiful 31-yard touchdown pass to George Zelik. Simas' kick was good.

Winston Siegfried scored for Duke from the one-yard line, in a touchdown set up by a great run by Lach and a penalty against the Westerners for unnecessary roughness. Tom Prothro's kick tied the score again. But Oregon State again took the lead, this time on a 68 yard pass and run play from Dethman to Gene Gray.

In the last quarter, Duke scored a safety when Durdan, standing in his end zone, got a bad pass from center.

There were no alibis from Coach Wallace Wade. "We lost to a mighty fine ball club," said the Duke mentor.

Everywhere but at New Orleans, where Fordham slogged to a 2 to 0 triumph over Missouri, touchdowns were as numerous as New Year's Day headaches.

Georgia-TCU In Scoring Spree
At Miami Georgia and Texas Christian players popped over the goal line with all the regularity of the Bulldozers of the Southeast conference triumphed, 40 to 26.

And Alabama crossed the double stripe four times and Texas A & M three times in the crimson tide's 25 to 21 cotton bowl victory.

The Fordham-Missouri score wasn't a surprise. It was a compliment to the two teams who were forced to play on a field that resembled a Louisiana bayou. Fordham's two points came early in the first period when Don Greenwood, Missouri end, dropped back to punt and the water-logged boot was blocked by Tackle Alex Santilli of the Rams. The ball squirted through the end zone before Stan Riltinski, Fordham flanker, got control of it.

That was all the scoring the 73,000 spectators saw.

Alabama Outgained
Alabama used the minimum of effort in turning back the cadets of Texas A & M, collecting its four touchdowns while gaining only 75 yards by rushing and passing while registering a two point first down.

The Texans, who could get only three touchdowns, gained 309 yards and 13 first downs.

The Tide's success was a tribute to Jimmy Nelson, their ace back, who scampered 72 yards on a punt return and later registered on 21 yards out.

Frank Sinkwich, the broken-

Durdan Tallies Touchdown As Oregon State Wins

The standout star of the transplanted Rose Bowl game in Durham, N. C., Halfback Don Durdan of Oregon State, dashes across the Duke university goal line, above, for the first score of the game, in which the Beavers upset the favored Duke Blue Devils, 20 to 16. Barnett (16) and Prothro (53) of Duke tried in vain to nab him before he hit pay dirt.

GOPHERS FAVORED OVER BUCKEYES IN CONFERENCE TILT

Three Losses On Tour Fail To Dishearten Coach Harold Olsen

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 2.—Ohio State University's basketball squad, returned from a disastrous trip to the West coast, scheduled two practice sessions today to whip into shape for its Western conference opener against Minnesota here Saturday.

Coach Harold G. Olsen was not discouraged by the Bucks' losses to Creighton, California and Stanford. "There's no getting away from the fact that we met good opponents," he said. "We took advantage of the trip to give several of our boys experience that will come in handy during the Western conference season."

Surprise package of the journey was Sophomore Jimmy Sims, who scored 14 points against Stanford. Minnesota rules the favorite since the Gophers trounced Creighton, 44-30, while the Omaha lads thrumped Ohio State, 60-34.

The Gophers have a record of five straight victories—over Millikin, South Dakota, North Dakota State, Creighton and Nebraska.

Here is the schedule of tomorrow night's other conference openers:

Illinois at Wisconsin, Indiana at Northwestern, Iowa at Michigan and Chicago at Purdue.

Jawed all America fullback, was the difference between Georgia and Texas Christian, the latter eleven dropping its first bowl decision in four outings.

Three times Sinkwich flipped scoring aerials and once he broke loose on a 43-yard touchdown jaunt of his own. He and his mates combined for a 40 to 7 lead before the Texans realized the game was under way.

Tulsa Wins 6-0
On the other bow, fronts, Tulsa's Missouri valley champions lasted for a fourth period touchdown and a 6 to 0 verdict over Texas Tech in the Sun Bowl.

blanked Morris Brown, 13 to 0, in the Vulcan bowl for the Negro championship and Louisiana College bested the University of Mexico, 10 to 0, in Mexico City for the Orchid Bowl crown.

SPORT CHATTER

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Duke saved the Rose Bowl game for this year but the move to Durham may hurt the Pasadena show in the long run.

Looks like a clinch that the folks in the Carolinas will try to make a permanent fixture of a New Year's Day game, and if they can arrange a hookup with the Southern conference, that will eliminate a possible California visitor each year.

All that noise you heard over the air really was the fans cheering, not the boys who saved 14 points on Duke meaning about it.

Lon Stiner was complaining because Oregon State ran into wet weather before leaving the coast but apparently that was just what the Beavers needed so they could handle a slippery ball.

Can't decide whether the No. 2 surprise was the way Georgia wrecked T. C. U. or Fordham Jim Crowley's stunt of springing a "T" formation on Missouri.

Most of Fordham's good gains came on quick opening plays that were supposed to be a Tiger specialty.

More Bowl Bits
Second guessing at long range, it seems that Duke's workouts against George McAfee weren't enough to get ready for Don Durdan, the Oregon southpaw pitcher.

and T. C. U. apparently had heard all about Frankie Sinkwich's running but didn't know he could pass, too.

Frank showed just one sign of slowing up before the game. That was when Simone Simon, the movie eye-fu, visited the practice field and the photos wanted her to kiss Sinkwich. It took considerable coaxing to get the Croatian cracker to go for that one.

Radio announcers had their usual trouble not saying anything about the weather, but they managed to say something every time a new ball was brought into play.

Best line we heard when Bill Stern said an Oregon State penalty was for "clipping, illegal use of the hands and unnecessary roughness."

One-Minute Sports Page
Mike Jacobs won't even talk about a sellout for the Baer-Louis fight because he still has a lot of tickets left and doesn't want to scare off any customers, but he figures that there won't be many vacant seats if they keep selling at the current rate.

Stanford's Frankie Albert has been signed to do a movie, "The Spirit of Stanford" for Columbia Pix.

GREENFORD FIVE BOWS TO ALUMNI BY 53-28 COUNT

F. Sweitzer Scores 20 To Pace Graduates to Overwhelming Victory

In a game played recently on the Greenford court, the Alumni trounced the Greenford varsity, 53-28. Paced by Fred Sweitzer who tallied 20 points during the course of the game, the Grads took a 16-11 lead at the end of the opening period. The aroused varsity quintet turned on the heat and outscored their opponents in the second quarter, 7-2, to knot the count at 18-18 at the intermission.

In the third stanza, the Alumni machine began to function and before the varsity could settle down the Ex-Highs had grabbed an 11 point margin which they never relinquished. Sweitzer and Leo Less led the assault which eventually brought victory to the Alumni.

The final frame found the Alumni still battering the run and the varsity was hopelessly outclassed. After the smoke of battle had cleared away it was discovered that the Ex-Grads had tucked the ball game into the well known bag as they flipped in 18 points to eight for the varsity in the last period.

Sweitzer and Less capped individual scoring honors with 20 and 12 markers respectively while Harry Brudery featured for the varsity as he tossed four fielders and three penalty throws through the hoop for a 12 point total.

The loss was the seventh of the season for the Greenford squad as compared with two triumphs.

LACK OF HITTING IN CLUTCH LOSES PENNANT FOR REDS

Pitching, Fielding Is Good; Front Office Seeks Sluggers

CINCINNATI — Considering all that happened last season, the management of the Cincinnati Reds views 1942 with considerable equanimity.

The substance of the official attitude is, "All we need is a few more hits and we're gonna get them."

The reasoning is this: In the first place, with a team that placed seventh in the National League batting averages for 1941, the Reds wound up third in the standings. That means that there's nothing to worry about in fielding or pitching.

Secondly, from mid-season on the Reds did better than check even with the Brooklyn Dodgers, who, to the surprise and amusement of many, won the pennant. On July 11, the Reds were 13 games behind, and they ended the season a game better.

Thus, it is figured, the Reds' bad start cost them a third straight pennant. Now the lack of about a dozen basehits is what made the bad start and what prevented the Reds from catching up in the second half.

In 1940 the Reds won 41 games by one run. In 1941 they lost a lot just the same way, and what hurt was the fact that enough defeats were caused by the lack of just one timely hit.

Leave Runners Stranded
The bases were loaded with none out, or the winning run was on second with one out, or the first man up tripled—and they all died.

Paul Derringer pitched his heart out in two 16-inning stints, one in June, which he lost to Brooklyn, 2 to 1, and the other in that final Brooklyn series which blew up in the gloaming.

So the Reds figure that the only explanation is that every man on the team had his bad hitting year all at once, and they are willing to bet handsome odds that Frank McCormick hits 40 points above his 1941 average of 269. Such alone would make plenty of difference.

Other accomplishments of 1941 include Elmer Riddle's performance of topping the National League in earned-run average and winning percentage, 2.34 and 19.4, respectively; Johnny Vander Meer's magnificent comeback; and a $5 dividend to stockholders.

On the business side, the Reds disposed of third baseman, Bill Werber to the New York Giants and rookie outfielder, Kermit Lewis to San Francisco for cash, and acquired veteran catcher, Rolie Hemisley from Cleveland of the American League for the same.

After Hitting Left Fielder
They are still looking for a hitting left fielder, though young Hank Sauer, late of Birmingham, may be the answer to the problem that has cost nearly $300,000 in four years.

In all, not an exciting year and far from the expectations that were noised about last spring, but the Reds are far from downhearted and don't even regard the revitalized Giants as their biggest problem for 1942.

Emerald Embassy by FRANCIS GERARD

CHAPTER SIXTEEN

"Madame," said Sir John quietly, "neither you nor I need to fence with one another when both of us know the reason for this meeting."

Anne nodded, a smooth tendril of hair falling softly over her forehead and making her look even more immature.

"For that reason, Madame, I will not insult your intelligence," went on Meredith, "by making a round about approach. You have the Sulungu necklace belonging to your cousin, the Dwan. Or—you know where it is. Acting on his behalf, I am here to obtain the return of that necklace."

With the introduction of the necklace subject—and object—Anne recovered herself. Her expression was veiled as she asked, "But how do you propose to obtain its return, Sir John?"

"Then you acknowledge that you have it?" suggested Meredith, leaning forward to hold his lighter to her cigarette.

"I didn't say that," she said. "I wasn't thinking of your mission."

But after a brief pause, Anne suddenly said, "Certainly I have it. It would be stupid to deny what you must at least guess. I have good claims to it."

"But you could be persecuted for theft," he pointed out. When he stared more directly at her, she hastened to answer, "Of course."

There was a short silence broken by Anne as she leaned towards him. "You have not answered my question: How do you propose to obtain possession of the necklace? It is not here, of course."

"I didn't think it was," he assured her. "But I have the authority of someone who shall be nameless to offer to buy the necklace from you."

"To buy it?"

"To buy it!"

Anne de Vassignac frowned. To her mentality this form of approach had been quite unexpected. She scented a trap as she asked, "For how much?"

"As I see it," Meredith replied, "you control a stolen emerald necklace which you can't wear because it could be easily identified and, therefore, you would be prosecuted. You could break the necklace up and sell the stones separately and you could, I suppose, get something in the neighborhood of half a million for them. But, it would take time to sell such a number of stones and so I am here to relieve you of that period of waiting. I am authorized to offer you six hundred thousand pounds for the return of the necklace which is certainly a hundred thousand more than you could get for it."

She smiled. "But then, Sir John, I am already a rich woman."

"So I understand," he acknowledged. "But still a hundred thousand pounds is a hundred thousand pounds. Even a millionaire American would not ignore a half a million dollars!"

"How very true, Sir John. But then two hundred thousand pounds would be two hundred thousand."

"Or three," said Meredith speaking very slowly. "Or four...."

He watched the girl's eyes as he made his final bid. "Or five, Madame. One million pounds for the return of the Sulungu necklace. And that is the final offer."

"One million pounds, Sir John," she repeated. "It's a huge fortune, isn't it?"

"Yes," he said. "And your answer?"

"I regret," she said shrugging slowly, "but my answer is—no."

Meredith smiled. "Well," he said, "I have at least made the offer."

"Sir John," said the girl leaning forward and laying a slim hand on his sleeve, "I hold the Sulungu necklace which the Dwan of Sulungu must put on to appear before his people on his return to his country. There is a legend, or prophecy, to the effect that he who wears the necklace holds the throne of Sulungu. I would remind you that I am also of royal blood."

"Magnificent," Madame exclaimed. Meredith. "Magnificent. But Sulungu is a British protectorate. How would you fare when a single destroyer came to visit the island?"

"You underrate me, Sir John!" cried the girl coming to her feet. "I would sit upon that throne and back of it would be ranged the Japanese navy!"

Anne broke off, her eyes aflame and Meredith, too, with the biting observation: "So it is true? Your Prince Satsui is still in the background, waiting to move into the foreground?"

Deliberately he allowed the contempt he felt to creep into his expression. After a long pause he continued:

"I have never seen your husband, Madame, but I have heard of him. What you tell me confirms the truth of what I have heard."

Her mouth twisted strangely. She went very white and her nostrils looked thin and pinched. She did not say a word as she slapped his face.

The immediate twinkle that came back into the man's eyes was more than she could stand. She turned away and leaned her forearm on the mantelpiece staring down into the fire.

"I won't keep you any longer, Madame. It's a pity you would not accept my offer because now you will get nothing."

She swung round, her eyes blazing. "What do you mean—nothing? You, in this country, think only in terms of money! Is Sulungu worth no more than a million?"

But if you increased your offer to five or ten or twenty million, my answer would still be the same!"

He shrugged. "If you will be good enough to ask your servant to bring my hat and gloves I will go."

She rang the bell. Looking at her, Meredith could see she was trembling. "You should really have accepted my offer," he said quietly.

"You see I shall find the necklace before ever you can use it."

She stared at him as though she could not comprehend his words.

"Find it?" she echoed.

"That is what I said," said Meredith calmly.

"But.... are you made of conceit? You haven't the faintest idea where it is! Why, you poor fool, it may be anywhere!"

Once more she was disconcerted to see that the blue eyes were laughing at her.

"Then that gives me all the more places to look for it," he said quietly.

She stamped her foot at him. "Fool! Fool! Fool!" she cried on a rising inflexion. "Do you think...."

"Is this man irritating you, my dear?" asked a voice from across the room. It was Satsui who had entered. "Shall I throw him out?"

An expression of sheer spite came into the girl's eyes. "Yes, Nikki. Throw him out!"

Meredith cocked an eye in the direction of the new-comer. "Do you think you can?" he asked lazily.

The Japanese smiled quite charmingly as he replied with complete assurance. "Oh, yes indeed."

In a flash Meredith moved with incredible speed, catching the Japanese when he was actually in mid-air in one of the most dangerous diving attacks known to jiu-jitsu or wrestling. He lifted Prince Satsui high above his head, saying, "From this position, I could break a man's back."

Anne de Vassignac stood as though frozen to stone. She knew something of Satsui's skill and ability but this Meredith was his master. She stared, her lips parted, as the Japanese made frenzied attempts to lock his legs about the other's neck only to be twisted once more high above Meredith's head.

"I think," said John breathing a little more quickly, "that a man with a broken back in your drawing-room might be an embarrassment, Comtesse. I think I'll just put him down."

He suited the action to the words and gently laid the humiliated Japanese on the sofa. For a moment the two men held each other's eyes, then Satsui moved—but not fast enough. As his arms shot out for that most deadly of headlocks, Meredith chopped twice with the heel of his hand at the yellow face.

Prince Satsui collapsed onto the sofa, his hands to his broken nose.

"I'm sorry for this mess," said Meredith, "but.... Well, he rather asked for it, you know."

Anne made no reply. She stood leaning against the mantel-piece, lips parted, her eyes wide and incredulous as though she had seen something which she had not thought possible. As, indeed, she had.

With an abrupt little bow, Meredith walked from the room into the lobby where Toto held ready his hat, stick and gloves. A moment later the door had shut behind him, but the girl still stood where she was, her head turned, her eyes staring at the door through which Sir John had disappeared.

Late the next afternoon, Yves Blaydes-Steele took a stout ash stick and strode purposefully down the drive of Weyland Hall towards the village. Though he had the air of going to some definite place, he was merely trying to "walk off" the evils of depression.

The evening before, on his return from London, Sir John Meredith had driven over to Weyland to report his failure to buy back the Sulungu necklace from Anne de Vassignac. Lord Lanchester had received the news with no comment, but it was plain that he was much worried over this wretched business.

Panama Prepares for Air Raids

While two sentries stand guard, a worker is shown piling sand bags around the sentry box to protect the men from possible flying shrapnel, and an important road junction near the strategic Panama Canal. The armed forces on guard at the Canal Zone are ready for any emergency.

Before light had failed, Meredith had also visited the corner of Weyland's Wood with Inspector Rainbird to examine the spot where Mr. Pennyfeather had met his death, but he seemingly discovered nothing and Yves was terribly disappointed. He was thinking in that wise when he reached the end of the drive, with the terrier bounding along ahead of him, and then turned his steps towards the little church and its adjacent cemetery. Soon he was on the sanded path which led to the new grave. He stared downwards as though his eyes could pierce the ten feet of earth which separated him from his old friend's body in a hopeless attempt to wrest from the grudging soil a clue to the mystery of Mr. Pennyfeather's death.

Blaydes-Steele was aroused from his reverie by a hoarse voice saying, "Now then, now then, Chawley, my boy, take it easy! You'll take the gate-post off if you keep on that way. Easy with the clutch and 'ave 'ave your brakes ready."

Yves looked over the low stone wall, which bounded the cemetery, toward the raucous author of this cautionary speech.

Just beyond the graveyard stood Vine Cottage in its charming little garden. Drawn up across the road was a large furniture van about to back into the small drive. The man warning the van's driver was a

THOUGHT HE COULDN'T ENDURE THE PAIN ANY LONGER

Painful Urination, Intense Pains In Back, Arms and Legs Suffered by Elderly Man.

MR. H. C. MILLER

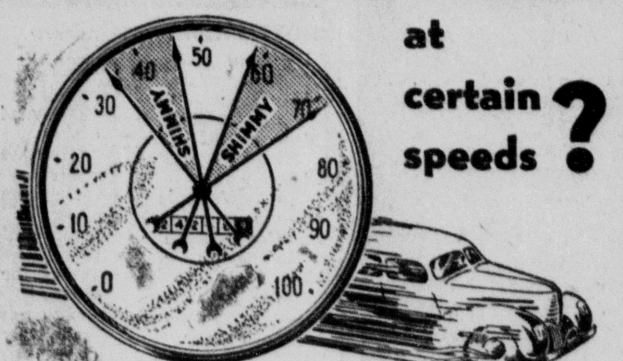

"For the past seven months I have suffered terribly from prostate, kidney and bladder trouble," stated Mr. H. C. Miller of R. R. No. 2, Alliance, Ohio.

"I had used all kinds of pills and medicines without favorable results. Finally I was compelled to drain my bladder by means of a catheter and consequently experienced a lot of pain. I always had to get up four or five times at night for this purpose. I suffered incredibly with pains in my back, arms and legs. This could be endured no longer and having had TON JON recommended by friends I tried it."

"Since I used it I never have to get up at night and use of a catheter is necessary only once a day. My back, arms and legs have stopped aching and I feel like shouting about TON JON. From the results I have received thus far I am certain that my troubles will be completely cleared up. I will always welcome the opportunity of a chance to recommend TON JON to anyone."

Don't suffer unnecessarily. Go to the Broadway Lease Drug Store, Salem, Ohio, and talk to the TON JON Health Representative.
